Henryk Kumar joined the Panther Hospitality team in April, of 2012, as an Analyst.

Henryk is originally from Boston, Massachusetts; but later moved to Atlanta where he graduated from Roswell High School. He attended Georgia State University (GSU) and graduated Cum Laude/Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science in Finance and Hospitality. While attending GSU, Henryk travelled extensively throughout Europe with the GSU Study Abroad European Experience Program and was the treasurer of the GSU student chapter of the American Hotel & Lodging Association (AH&LA).

While earning his degrees, Mr. Kumar worked in many areas and firms of the hospitality industry. He has worked at TGI Friday's, Tanner's, Durango Steakhouse, and The Kokopelli Café. He also conducted market research and product nutritional analysis as an intern with Great Wraps and worked both front and back of the house at The Capital City Club in Atlanta as an intern. He was also a teaching assistant and graduate assistant for the Georgia State University Food Production Lab. Presently, he is certified in TIPS and Taps training.

Henryk's interests outside of the hospitality industry include owning and managing Spraycan Art, which acquires and sells contemporary art. He also manages Friends of Cosmo, which organizes fundraising events and disperses its proceeds to several no-kill animal shelters.
